

RULES

NWABBA Contesting Rules in their most recent form apply (These rules may be downloaded from northwestbrassbands.org.uk)

All players to be registered with a recognised brass bands registry.

Interpretation of rules shall be the prerogative of the Contest Organisers and the Executive Committee of the NWABBA.

National Gradings shall be used for all graded bands. Bands may play in their own nationally graded section only

Each band to consist of up to 25 brass players and percussion as required.

Each band must be represented at draws taken on the day.

It is the band's responsibility to ensure that their players' registration cards are complete and franked for the current year.

Temporary transfers of players application must be made on the official form and presented at the registration table. The form is available on the website.

Registry print-outs will be sent from the Registry to the Contest Controller approx. one week before the contest.

An unmarked original score to be presented at the draw or on arrival if pre-drawn.

Closed adjudication. Placings only will be awarded (no points).

Objections and complaints must be put in writing within 14 days of the contest accompanied by a deposit of £30 which will be returned if the complaint is upheld.

Prize moneys will be withheld for 14 days pending objections.

The organisers reserve the right to cancel any section if sufficient entries are not received.

Should a section have less than 6 entries, only first and second prizes will be paid out.

A representative of the winning bands will be required to accept the trophies.

Bands are responsible for the insurance of trophies whilst in their safekeeping.

It is the band's responsibility to have trophies engraved in keeping with the other engraving.

Winners of individual trophies are deemed to be representatives of the band they are playing with and the band will be held responsible for the safekeeping and return of the trophy.

The contest management will not accept responsibility for any expenses incurred by bands or their members in connection with the contest, unless previously agreed in writing by the management.
